Re: SEC v. Plexcorps a/k/a and d/b/a PlexCoin and Sidpay.ca, et al.,
No. 17 Civ. 7007 (CBA) (the “Civil Action”)

Dear Judge Amon:

Pursuant to Practice 3.A. of the Individual Motion Practices and Rules of Judge Carol Bagley Amon and in anticipation of proposing to the Court a plan for the disposition of collections in this matter, the Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) respectfully requests that the Court schedule a pre-motion conference at which the SEC will seek an Order appointing a tax administrator for the PlexCorps Fair Fund to ensure compliance with IRS rules and regulations.

The PlexCorps Fair Fund constitutes a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) under section 468B(g) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), 26 U.S.C. § 468B(g), and related regulations, 26 C.F.R. §§ 1.468B-1 through 1.468B-5 because it was established by this Court for distribution to investors harmed by the defendants’ fraud and registration violations in connection with the PlexCoin initial coin offering. It is comprised of collections from the Defendants in satisfaction of a Final Judgment and it is held by the SEC. See 26 C.F.R. § 1.468B-1; see also D.E. 116 (Final Judgment). The appointment of a tax administrator is necessary to ensure the taking of all necessary steps to enable the PlexCorps Fair Fund to obtain and maintain the status of a taxable QSF, including the filing of all required elections and statements contemplated by those provisions. The SEC recommends the appointment of Miller, Kaplan, Arase LLP (“Miller Kaplan”), a certified public accounting firm that frequently acts as the tax administrator in SEC enforcement actions and that is experienced in QFS reporting.

By the proposed Order, Miller Kaplan will execute all income tax reporting obligations of the PlexCorp Fair Fund, including the preparation and filing of tax returns and compliance with the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act. If the PlexCorps Fair Fund is transferred to the Receiver appointed in the related action pending in Superior Court in Quebec, Canada (the “Receiver”)¹ for distribution, Miller Kaplan will file a final tax return for the year of its transfer and provide to the SEC any information requested to assist the SEC in reporting to the Court. If the PlexCorps Fair Fund is not transferred to the Receiver for distribution, Miller Kaplan will provide all necessary services through the completion of any distribution and prepare a final accounting, in a form acceptable to the SEC, for filing with the Court.

The proposed Order further authorizes the SEC to approve and arrange payment of all tax related costs without further Court Order. Miller Kaplan has agreed to perform all work pursuant to the fees set forth in its agreement with the SEC for tax years 2019 through 2021. If the PlexCorps Fair Fund is transferred to the Receiver appointed in the related action in Canada, AUTORITÉS DES MARCHÉS FINANCIERS v. DOMINIC LACROIX, et al., No.: 200-11-025040-182, Superior Court, Quebec, Canada, for distribution, Miller Kaplan has further agreed that its aggregate fees and expenses will not exceed the PlexCorps Fair Fund’s net earnings in this matter, $1583.08. If the PlexCorps Fair Fund owes taxes, taxes will be paid first from accrued interest, and then from principal.

The Court in the Canadian Proceedings has scheduled a hearing on January 25, 2022, regarding the Receiver’s proposed distribution. The Receiver is proposing two plans: one for the distribution of assets collected by the Receiver, and the other for the PlexCorps Fair Fund, should this Court order its distribution through the Receiver in the Canadian Proceedings.² The SEC has collaborated with the Receiver in the development of those plans and, upon their approval, anticipates filing a motion with this Court recommending a plan for the distribution of the PlexCorps Fair Fund and seeking an Order to Show Cause to provide to harmed investors the opportunity to object to that plan.

In compliance with the Local Rules of the Eastern District of New York, counsel for the SEC has conferred with Defendants’ counsel in the United States about the foregoing matter, and counsel has informed the SEC that his clients take no position on the Motion. We look forward to discussing the Motion with the Court at a pre-motion conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Catherine E. Pappas
